Using our Recruitment Enquiry Form and Job Application Form

Prosper Group (Prosper Meath and Prosper Fingal) website forms collect the personal details of people who wish to enquire about, or apply for current or potential job positions at Prosper Meath. The details collected via the form are forwarded via email to our HR department so that they can make contact with the individual who completes the form. The personal details contained in this email are used solely for making contact with the individual or organisation who makes the enquiry and/or processing their job application
