

My day service is closed

The Government has said that all day services must close

This means that I will stay at home until my day service is open again

If I feel upset I can talk to my family or other people in my house.

I can also talk to friends, family or staff on the phone